RABBI JOSH WOHL

There's a famous story about the Kotzker Rebbe, who was known for his deep and inspiring wisdom. One day the Rebbe was approached by an ambitious disciple. The disciple was certain that he was smarter than the Rebbe and one day he set out to prove it. He approached the Rebbe and he said: "I ask you, learned sage, is the bird in my hand dead or alive?"

Now, the Kotzker Rebbe knew that this was a trap. If he said that the bird was dead, then the disciple would open his hand and the bird would fly away, proving the Rebbe wrong. If he said that the bird was alive, then the disciple would crush the bird in his hands and again, show the sage he was wrong.

The Rebbe thought for a moment, and finally looked at his disciple and said: "It's all in the power of your hands"

As we approach the High Holidays we are reminded that though we may face challenges, our responses are up to us. These days are a time for us all to reflect on the idea that "It's all in the power of our hands." These days are a gift in that they offer us time to take stock of our lives, inspiring us to become kinder, more generous human beings.

Jewish tradition wisely presents us with mitzvot—commandments that shape our behavior in this world. And yet, not all mitzvot are easy. Of all the mitzvot, the hardest are often those that compel us to treat others well. Circumstances beyond our control often make it difficult to remain positive. People say things that provoke us; we are put in situations that make us angry. But in the end, when we remember that our responses are ours alone, we can see that "It's all in the power of our hands." So in the upcoming year, 5778, may God bless us with health and happiness and give us the strength to shape our destiny, with our own hands.

PRESIDENT, DR. SEHLDON ROSENTHAL

As we return from our summer vacations we reflect on the past year and the upcoming Days of Awe. Our community has pulled together through the good and the bad. We have had three marvelous B'nai Mitzvoth and one awesome wedding. There were discussions about potential space sharing within the Jewish community. We have also had our share of sadness with the passing of several senior congregants and the loss of several other members to new adventures. We have also had the unfortunate experience of burnout within our lay leadership.

The one thing we are all united about is we want Agudath Achim to survive. The year 5778 is going to be a very challenging year for our community. Rabbi Wohl has told us that this is going to be his last year in our community and we are going to have to search for a new spiritual leader. We are going to have to step up as a community to maintain our synagogue. Everyone needs to become more involved. Fresh thoughts and ideas are needed to invigorate our synagogue. We have become too complacent, believing that our synagogue will always be here for us. I think we are now at a crossroads where we have to change our thought processes and think about how we can maintain our place of worship. We need to think about new yearly fundraisers and a new capital campaign to increase the size of the Eternal Light Trust and the cemetery trust, offsetting our increasing costs and decreasing pledges.

In closing, our congregation has a lot of needs, which are increasing. I will not talk about anymore of them at this time but, if you sit, open your heart and think, they will come to you as well. I would like to truly speak to each and everyone of you about these concerns. I will be glad to make myself available to you if you contact me. I will speak with you by whatever method is good for you, on the phone, at your home or another place of your choosing. We must all step up and make Agudath Achim a priority this year. Remember, G-d will help us but only if we make the effort and reach out.
